Sir/Madam,

The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) has the pleasure to invite you to participate in roundtable discussions on the theme “Health Issues and Policies on Detention and Migration” which will take place on 1st December 2023, 9:00 to 18:00 in the Conference Center “Giannis Kyriopoulos”, School of Public Health, University of West Attica.

The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) has developed a cooperation with the University of West Attica and University of Piraeus aimed at highlighting issues of particular interest for the Health in Detention sector, Public Health and the importance of best practices in health management in their regard, in accordance with national and international standards.

Through its collaboration and constructive dialogue with the health authorities, the ICRC promotes the coordination of respective actors, the building of capacity of staff and the implementation of protocols and guidelines of relevance for functional, quality health facilities as part of the public health system.

The ICRC raises the issue of awareness and the training of health actors at a national level, with the aim of encouraging health system managers and the State to adopt appropriate and common best practices regarding Primary Health Care provision on site in detention centers and specialized care through an adequate referral system in a comprehensive manner.

For online participation, it is possible to pre-register by following the link below:
